GPE fifth overall in Britain's Most Admired Companies

GPE was the highest rated Property Company for the second consecutive year in Management Today's 'Britain's Most Admired Companies' awards. GPE ranked fifth in the overall awards, the Company's highest ever position and the only property company in the top ten.

Toby Courtauld, Chief Executive Officer of Great Portland, said: "I am delighted that the Company has been voted by our peers as a one of the top five most admired companies for the first time and the most admired company in the sector for the second year running. This award recognises the hard work of everyone at the Company to deliver another successful year."
